

Hemoglobinopathies Newborn Screening and Follow-up Meeting

During this meeting, representatives from the region's newborn screening follow-up programs will discuss methods to identify the demographics of infants identified with sickle cell trait. In addition, members of emergent communities affected by sickle cell trait (e.g. Hispanic individuals) and their primary care providers have been invited to provide perspective and input into the educational approach and information provided for sickle cell trait follow-up.

Hemoglobinopathies Newborn Screening and Follow-up Meeting

Meeting Date and Time: Thursday, July 16, 2009
1:30 to 5:00 p.m.

Meeting Location: Marriott Gateway Park
Ballroom C
16455 East 40th Circle, Aurora, CO 80011
303-371-4333
www.marriotthotels.com/dengp

DRAFT Agenda 6-17-09

- | | |
|---------|---|
| 1:15 pm | Meet and Greet |
| 1:30 pm | Welcome - Dr. Kathryn Hassell |
| 1:45 pm | Sickle Cell Trait <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ New brochures - Funding Available▪ Providers and Consumers<ul style="list-style-type: none">A panel discussion of their needs and how we can meet them |
| 3:00 pm | Demographics and Emerging Communities
Funded and Future Projects |
| 4:00 pm | Meeting Wrap-Up and hors d'oeuvres |
| 5:00 pm | Adjourn |

For more information or to register please contact:

Cheri Burge
Cheri.Burge@ucdenver.edu or 303-724-9070
Colorado Sickle Cell Treatment & Research Center
University of Colorado Denver
13121 E. 17th Avenue, C-222, Room 3211
Aurora, CO 80045

The meeting is being held in conjunction with the Mountain States Genetics Regional Collaborative Center's Annual Meeting. For more information, please visit www.msgrcc.org.

This project is funded by the Mountain States Genetics Regional Collaborative Center (MSGRCC), which is supported by cooperative agreement #U22MC10761 with the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Genetic Services Branch.